Good morning.

This confirms receipt of your FOIA request submitted to the Naval Surface Warfare Command (NSW) on April 17, 2013 for a copy of subject contract. The Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) received your request from NSW on April 18, 2013 and assigned it ONI FOIA number 13-032.

At the time NSW transferred your request you were consulting your client with respect to processing fees. Your client had agreed to pay up to $55.00. FOIA fees are established at 32 CFR 286.29 and are set by SECNAVINST 5720.42F (1999) at $20.00 per hour for clerical services, $44.00 per hour for professional services and review and .15 cents per page for duplication. In processing this request, ONI used 2 1/2 hours of profession time (totaling $102.50); 1 hour of clerical time (totaling $20.00) and 19 pages of duplication (totaling $2.85 for a processing total of $125.35.

Please consult with your client for commitment to pay this processing fee. If your client's commitment is not received by May 15, 2013 this request will be administratively closed. If you have any additional question please contact me at the below number or by email at jwatson@nmic.navy.mil.

Jean:

Thanks for taking my call. Attached is a FOIA request from the FOIA Group along with our related emails. Per SOP for low commercial estimates, this office started negotiations with the FOIA Groups concerning their initial estimate of $55.00. We countered with our fee estimate is $150.00. FOIA group is currently checking with their client concerning our fee estimate. At that point our contracting office came back and advised the number indicates it is your agency's contract. Per our telephone conversation, please verify your agency's cognizance over the contract. Upon receipt of your confirmation this office will refer to your office as release authority. If during your processing it appears WARCOM has equities, please refer the matter to this office.

Thanks.

Eric
